GOLDEN PEARL'S GIFT RACE

HESSIAN IS PULLED UP TO ALLOW HIM TO WIN THE WHIRL STAKES.

Trance Resumes Successful Racing After a Long Rest—Attorney Elder's Presence Disturbs Yonkers Patrons of Racing.

New York, August 24.—The closing week of the Empire City's midsummer meeting began auspiciously for favorite players, as the betting choices made a clean sweep of the card. From first to last the racing was extraordinarily formful, the weather and track conditions perfect and the 5,000 race-goers present would have long remembered it as a day of ideal sport but for the disquieting presence of Acting District Attorney Elder of Kings county, who arrived just before the fourth race. His presence distracted the attention of the spectators from the sport for the remainder of the afternoon.

All that Mr. Elder could be induced to say for publication was this: "Mr. Parsons, of the Coney Island Jockey Club, has given out a statement as to what his associates will do at the Sheepshead Bay meeting. If he does as he says there will be no occasion for my interfering. If he doesn't make good I'll get busy, that's all."

There were present a half dozen of Hughes' private detectives, busily engaged in taking data during the afternoon. It is known that twelve warrants had been issued in the morning, but none of them was served. One arrest took place, a man by the name of Michaelson, for alleged recording of a wager.

There was no betting, oral or otherwise, going on in the clubhouse inclosure today. It was, in fact, practically deserted. Almost everybody had gone out on the lawn in front of the grandstand to enjoy the racing.

The $2 rate of admission and the field abolished for Sheepshead Bay and all the other tracks for the remainder of the season has been practically decided upon.

A. J. Joyner had three horses entered in the Whirl Stakes, Hessian, Golden Pearl and Rialto, but, as he expressed it, "it seemed a shame to take all three moneys and therefore I scratched Rialto." In the race Golden Pearl and Hessian ran first and second, the former occupying the pride of place at the end on sufferance. Magazine made the pace with Golden Pearl and Frizette close up and Hessian trailing. The latter was sent along on the backstretch, challenged and disposed of the pacemaker on the turn and drew out with a long and cantering lead in the stretch. Then Dugan sat down and patiently waited for Golden Pearl to come along. When he saw the latter single out from the others in the last furlong with a safe lead for second place, he turned around and signaled Butler to come on and win, which he did, Hessian in the meantime being pulled up to almost a standstill to enable the declared one of the pair to do so.

The second race, at five and a half furlongs, was the medium through which the wonderful filly, Trance, was reintroduced to metropolitan race-goers after a long retirement of nearly three months. Although she was opposed by a rare good trial horse, Royal Captive, the daughter of Ben Brush—Fair Vision emerged victorious under circumstances so sensational as to warrant her being acclaimed almost the equal of the renowned Maskette. Trance, whose flight of speed was dazzling, and whose gameness was something to marvel at, in view of her probable lack of condition, has had a busy two-year-old career. She began racing at Oakland in January several months before she was actually of age. She has traveled to California and back to New York besides several journeys between Los Angeles and San Francisco, in all probably 10,000 miles, while being severely campaigned at all three points. She triumphed repeatedly over the flower of her age and sex in the east and retired only to come out in the near fall of the year better than ever.

The opening race was started by C. H. Pettingill. Mr. Cassidy did not arrive at the track in time owing to the breakdown of his automobile.

S. C. Hildreth gave out the belated information today that Fitz Herbert had been pricked to the quick while being shod shortly after he passed to his and Madden's possession. Fitz Herbert is working along satisfactorily, but will not be ready for the Futurity. "What's the difference anyway," exclaimed his owner. "It would be wasting time and energy to try to beat the Maskette kind."

J. L. McGinnis will send home his horses, including Frank Gill, next Wednesday. Mr. McGinnis deprecates all the talk of a match race with Pinkola and had no intention of entering into any such an affair.

SPIRITED RACING AT FORT ERIE.

Sal Volatile Defeats Please—Jockey Powers Secured by Barney Schreiber for Next Winter.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 24.—With the exception of the third and fourth, the races were of a consolation order at Fort Erie this afternoon, but furnished good racing and were witnessed by the best Monday attendance of the meeting. The steeplechase, intended as the feature, was strictly a two-horse race throughout, Awawegang and Arian, first and second choices respectively, having it between them. Eight started in the race, but only four finished the course without mishap, Picktime, Impertinence, Little Wally and Tacony unseating their riders at various stages. The followers of jockey Powers did not fare so well as usual. The rider only managed to land two of his six mounts winners. To land them in front he had to show his best form, as, with equally good riding on Polar Star and Imboden, they would have finished in front.

The third race, in which some of the best youngsters at the grounds engaged, resulted in defeat for T. M. Green by Alice after a spirited last furlong drive. Anne McGee, Jolly and Richard Reed failed to get a place in the race. The sprint race, a handicap at three-quarters, also resulted in an upset by the defeat of Please by Sal Volatile. Please showed much the most early speed, but tired in the final drive from her exhaustive tactics in racing the early contenders into defeat. The showing of Chief Hayes was a good one and he stuck gamely to his task and outgamed Lens for third place. Chief Hayes was purchased before the race by J. H. Adams from Sam Louis for a reported price of $1,000.

The chief surprise of the afternoon came in the sixth race when Tagane made a show of her opponents and won at a long price. Tagane had heretofore been considered in the nature of a joke and her owner after today's race found considerable enjoyment in bantering his former tormenters.

After numerous attempts Anna L. Daley managed to break from the maiden class by winning the opening race. She was away with an advantage at the start, while the favorite, Splendida, stumbled and almost fell just as the barrier was released.

Senator Barrett, which was claimed last Saturday by J. C. Cahn, was returned to his former owner at an advance in price.

After Sal Volatile's victory trainer T. Rodrock announced that it would be the filly's last race on the flat, as she would be put to jumping. She has been well schooled and with her high flight of speed should prove a formidable opponent to the best.

The Montreal program book was distributed to horsemen here today.

W. Shields is schooling Call Boy over the jumps, and the son of Imp gives promise of becoming a good timbertopper.

S. Louis purchased Lady Corinne this afternoon from J. McLaughlin, Jr.

J. McLaughlin, Jr., will campaign a string of eight horses owned by his father. The list will include Lally, Personal and Campaigner. The horses will be shipped to Montreal on Wednesday next from New York.

Barney Schreiber was among today's visitors. After the running of the Empire City Handicap last Saturday Schreiber immediately set about securing a contract on jockey Powers, and succeeded today in having the jockey's father affix his signature to a contract that will give Schreiber first call on the rider next winter. Mr. Schreiber also stated that Jack Atkin, for whom the crack horse had been named, was misquoted on his return from Europe in discussing California racing. Jack Atkin is one of the staunchest believer in California racing and anticipates no interference with the sport while Tom Williams is in control.

A seven days running meeting is in contemplation at Long Branch, N. J., beginning August 31 to September 7. The purses will be $150 and $200. Five races will be given daily. The meeting will be managed by T. H. Coleman, manager of the Wilkesbarre, Pa., and Trenton, N. J., fairs.

L. A. Cella got in this afternoon and will remain here several days before going to New York.

Edward Corrigan returned today from his farm in Lexington, where he disposed of several of his broodmares.

NEW ORLEANS RACING OPINION.

President Barnes Talks About the Future—Legal Opinion and the Betting Question.

On the heels of the announcement by President Dave Barnes of the City Park track of New Orleans, the Picayune of that city says:

"All the local turfmen are of one mind concerning the future of racing here. Public sentiment, as in all such things, will govern them to a great extent, and, this being the case, it looks very much like racing for many of the winter weeks, when the city is crowded with visitors seeking to escape the rigors of the frozen north and at the same time craving the recreative excitement of the races."

"Speaking for myself and many of my associates, I wish to say positively that we will make no effort to conduct a meeting here if we are to be made targets of abuse and condemnation by the alleged reformers and the press," declared D. H. Barnes yesterday. "There will be little or no profit in it for the parties who have their money invested in the two half-million-dollar plants here. There will be little enough incentive, ten times less than caused the owners of the big eastern tracks to go ahead, because the crowds attending the sport simply for the sport's sake will naturally be many times smaller.

"According to the present plans, tentatively made, local turfmen will buy or lease the interests of outside turfmen, who already regard the racing game as dead in Louisiana. We will then see if a resurrection cannot be accomplished without treading on anyone's toes, for nobody can deny that racing is a headline attraction to thousands of visitors who would not otherwise visit this city in the winter.

"Personally, I do not believe the hotels, restaurants and theaters would do much if it were not for the attraction offered pleasure-seekers during the winter in the shape of good racing. How many of the big theatrical companies could afford to come here if it were not for the pleasure-loving element which habitually enjoys racing and generally spends its money with freedom and unrestraint.

"The half-mile tracks have hurt the sport here and will probably continue to bring it into disrepute among a certain class in spite of the legislation recently enacted to prevent gambling.

"But we propose to bring a fairly good class of horses here, if all goes well, and both tracks will have their meetings, City Park and the Fair Grounds."

About the betting question, the Picayune says:

"Local lawyers agree that while the Locke and Hunsicker measures prohibit the operations of bookmakers, the use of handbooks, selling of pools or betting by the French pari-mutuel system, neither measure prevents the making and recording of bets between individuals. The anti-racing people left open a gap for the benefit of racing a la county fair, and it is believed that the big tracks here can offer good sport in the way of races, and at the same time offer their patrons perfect security in laying bets.

"During the hot fight which preceded the passage of the Locke bill, by an exceedingly small majority, Mayor Martin Behrman headed a large delegation of New Orleans hotel proprietors, restaurant owners and business men of every description which went to Baton Rouge and exerted their influence as far as possible in an effort to prevent the passage of the bill. They went before the lawmakers assembled and entered a strong plea for the salvation of racing, but without success.

"Since the passage of the so-called death-to-racing bill some of the most brilliant legal talent has advised interested parties that the Locke bill was, in many ways, an ineffective measure no matter how well intended it was to prevent race track gambling.

"Mayor Behrman gave out a statement in which he defended his position, saying that his fight against the Locke bill was mainly because it was ineffective and would lead to more disgraceful abuses of racing than were already practiced.

"He said that the number of police about a track would have to be doubled, in case a meeting was held, because of the gap left open for individual betting, which might be taken advantage of by many unscrupulous persons and lead to trickery and fraud. It was pointed out that the Cordill measure, regulating racing, was the safer, saner and the superior."

It is now about certain that if there is any racing on the big tracks next winter, it will again be in control of local people.

A syndicate is being formed by capitalists of this city, merchants and bankers, to lease the two big tracks from their present owners.

In years gone the Fair Grounds were controlled by citizens of New Orleans, and the City Park track was built through money furnished by many merchants of the Crescent City. A clash between the two tracks resulted in the sale of the Fair Grounds to outsiders, and the small stockholders and some of the big ones, too, were glad to get out of City Park.

Then the war was declared off, and for two years both tracks have made money. The past winter much opposition developed against the two tracks and some anti-betting legislation followed.

It is said that a proposition has been made to local men to lease the tracks at a fair rental and for the sport to be controlled by the people of New Orleans, and the deal will be made this week.

Racing was carried on experimentally Saturday and Sunday last over the half-mile Suburban track, which is in Jefferson Parish, on the outskirts of New Orleans. The experiment could hardly be voted a success. The attendance was scanty, few people caring to witness inferior horses contend for $100 purses. No bookmaking was attempted, and the sheriff and his deputies had no betting to suppress. If there was any betting it was private and so not noticeable. Although it is claimed that this style of racing will be continued it is difficult to perceive why.

CONEY ISLAND JOCKEY CLUB'S ACTION.

The unexpected action of the Coney Island Jockey Club makes it evident that the pertinacity of Acting District Attorney Elder has scared a good many of the members. Indictment by a grand jury is not a particularly agreeable thing and perhaps their trepidation is not to be wondered at. Still, the threat to close the gates of Sheepshead Bay to the public as a deterrent from betting does not seem to have been happily inspired. The Coney Island Jockey Club owes its great profits of the past to that public. If the patrons of the sport are willing to endure the discomforts of the present situation, the club should recognize their rights and do the same. To close the track gates and run the stakes off in private would certainly be meeting the club's obligations to subscribing owners, but it would at the same time be shortsightedly disregarding its obligations to the public that has always supported it loyally.

As to its meeting to begin next Saturday, it may be remarked that the club has never broken its promises and last spring it formally announced that its meetings would be carried on this year despite adverse legislation. That is sufficient assurance and there is no good reason to expect anything else than that the meeting will be carried through successfully.

In the meantime it seems that Philip J. Dwyer sized up the situation accurately when he said: "All the tracks ought to be willing to race at a loss for two years. I have made a lot of money in racing and I am prepared to send it all back again, if necessary, to keep up the greatest sport on earth."

Aster d'Or, suddenly improved, got away slowly, but closed up steadily and, challenging in the stretch, failed to get up, but was a fast going and close second. D'Arkle, shuffled back on the first turn, trailed in the middle half and finished with a rush. Sun Fire showed superior speed for six furlongs and failed to stay. Alauda ran a bad race and was never dangerous, but finished moderately well. Easton ran in forward contention for the first half and retired quickly. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Winner—Ch. c, by Golden Garter—Pearl V. (trained by J. Schlosser).

Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Golden Pearl, after nearest and strenuous pursuit of the pacemaker, drew out with a rush in the last furlong and passed his pulling-up stable companion right at the end. Hessian broke slowly and went wide on the first turn, closed up rapidly on the backstretch and drew out on the stretch turn into a long lead, but was taken up in the last sixteenth to allow Golden Pearl to win and is in grand form. Frizette, on the inside in deep going, was shuffled back early and trailed to the stretch, then finished well. Magazine set a stiff pace for six furlongs and tired badly.

Batsman ran forwardly throughout and finished unexpectedly well. Tender and True showed superior early speed, but failed to stay. Grace Cameron was rushed into the lead, set the pace for seven furlongs and quit badly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

CONVENT BELL RUNS IN RECORD TIME.

Seattle, Wash., August 24.—Despite the fact that intermittent showers, following Saturday's downpour, left the going at The Meadows a trifle slow today, W. M. Caine's greatly improved mare, Convent Bell, equaled the American record of 1:42⅘ for a mile and seventy yards in scoring a nose victory over Vox Populi in the fourth race. Convent Bell had a series of brilliant performances to her credit prior to her feat of today and was one of three favorites that rewarded form players, Harmakis and Fireball being the others of the trio. Jockey Lynch was sharply criticised for Angleface's failure to score as the favorite in the race for two-year-olds, which he threw away through over-confidence after having the race virtually won.

C. E. (Boots) Durnell, was a visitor at The Meadows today, having come west to collect from horsemen whose notes he took in payment for horses at the enforced sale of his stable at Oakland last winter. He will remain here only a few days and will then return to New York, where he is interested in a taxicab enterprise. He made several winning wagers in the ring today, but attempted no big plunging. Durnell declared that he had no present idea of trying to get back into racing.

Jockey Walsh dislocated his right thumb while skylarking yesterday, in consequence of which his engagements for today were cancelled. Jockey Page's accident of Saturday kept him out of the saddle and it may be some time before he resumes riding.

Edward Trotter claimed Miss Mazzoni for $700.

LATONIA AND LOUISVILLE MAY COMBINE.

"The interested ones will know what's doing in fall racing next week," says the Cincinnati Enquirer. "By that time the race track owners will have had a session and the Racing Commission will also hold a powwow.

"It has been understood that the Latonia management—well, that's going a bit too far, for the management of this popular course reserves the right to change its policy at any moment. It's better to say that it has been said that the Latonia management will not accept dates from the Racing Commission with a pari-mutuel attachment. If the commission insists it may follow that the courts will get a chance to determine just what the rights of the race courses duly chartered by the state of Kentucky are.

"It is a sad state of affairs, and some opine that it will end in the passing of prohibitory legislation against betting on horse races."

A dispatch to the same paper from New York seems to have a ring of inspiration and indicates a combination against pari-mutuel betting and the Racing Commission by both Latonia and Louisville. The parties influential in both tracks are in New York. The dispatch says: "An effort is being made to have Louisville and Latonia take the same standpoint on the wagering question. The two tracks at Louisville, Churchill Downs and Douglas Park, are under the control of a holding company capitalized at $600,000. Conditions that will not prevail again this year made it possible for Louisville to make a very small sum of money with the spring meeting.

"The Racing Commission will be asked for dates and at the same time will be asked to modify its rule regarding the betting end of it. If the commission declines to allow any other form of betting excepting the pari-mutuels, the meeting will be conducted with the bookies on, the commission enjoined from interfering pending the final settlement of the question of authority in the courts. The race tracks have no desire to oppose the commission or put it out of business, but want to know what their rights are in the matter."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Robert C. Hall, treasurer of the old Maryland Jockey Club and once a turf partner of Oden Bowie, is dead. He once owned Buddha.

Word comes to New York from Havana that the racing plant there will be rebuilt and put in first-class condition for a meeting or sixty days, beginning December 5.

Bengal, by Ben Strome—Exilona, is a good winner in France. August 2 he won the Prix du Conseil General, at seven and a half furlongs, for which he was an odds-on favorite at 7 to 10.

It turns out that now and for the past two years George C. Bennett, the turfman and ex-poolroom magnate, has owned the largest interest in and controlled the New Orleans baseball club.

Herman R. Brandt made no mistake when he bought Harrigan from John E. Madden. Harrigan has won three straight races for his new owner at Yonkers. Brandt is becoming a "little wizard of the turf" himself in these days.

It was said concerning the race won by Magazine, third on the card at Empire City Saturday, that "Chicago" O'Brien noticed that Firestone, the favorite, was not "plated" for a slippery track, and won $800 by betting $1,000 that he could not win under the circumstances.

The story that Pinkola, which won the Empire City Handicap and beat Jack Atkin, was specially prepared for the race by Herman Brandt, Jack Atkin's trainer, is ridiculous on its face. The fact of the matter is that the horse was sent from Fort Erie to Brandt by Fizer and was merely stabled with Brandt's horses.

We are told by Memphis dispatches that "the nomination of Malcolm R. Patterson, a lifelong member of the Memphis Jockey Club, by the Democratic party, which means practically his election as Governor of Tennessee, has created the impression that prospects are bright for revival of the sport in this state." Ye Gods! Did not Mr. Patterson sign the bill that put the Memphis Jockey Club out of business?.

Lloyds of London insurance is paying good prices to the fortunate owners who lose insured thoroughbreds in these days. The two-year-old bay colt, Uncle Hawk, by Goldcrest—Rosa MacBride, owned by J. C. Milam, died at Latonia after running one race June 10 last, was insured for £400 or $2,000 with Lloyds. The claim was paid last week. May 26 last in California there died a bay colt, Jim Hardman, which had never started and was owned by J. E. Cushing. He was by Streamer, out of May Bee and insured for £1,025 or $5,125. Jim Hardman had been highly tried and was a half brother to William Wright and Ralph Reese.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

B. F. P., Chicago. Jacomo was 4 to 5 to show.

Dave L., St. Louis, Mo. 12 to 5 would be a fair price.

D. R., Leaf River, Ill. Bad News, 1:39⅗, Dandelion, 1:37⅘.

H. A. A., Indianapolis, Ind. It was Senator Barrett, which ran second.

E. M. W., Chicago. The parlay lost. Parlays are decided strictly by the running of the horses named in the bet.

O. W. H., Chicago. Dick Welles did not start in a race of a mile and a half or over. The greatest distance raced over by him was one and one-eighth miles.

H. R., Chicago. A bet is a matter of mutual agreement and there is no way to make one pay a bet that he has not taken, or says he has not, which amounts to the same thing. Of course, the bet should be paid. If Ida D. had been beaten no statement that the bet was not on would have been made.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED TODAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.
